Jeff's Journal

My journal this month will not be much about my activities because right after writing for last month, I came down with the dreaded respiratory flu. I was sick and confined to home for almost 3 weeks before finally seeing the Doctor and getting the necessary meds to get rid of this thing. Today (Thursday) is the first day I've really felt reasonably well since it began last month. At this time of year and with the very cold weather we have been having, I would not be spending much time outdoors anyway and then seeing the morning forecast it appears to me I'll be spending another week inside the house as well. This situation has at least helped me to catch-up on my reading and recorded movies I have put off until now. Along with being sick from the flu I think I might now be in stage three Cabin Fever. The only way to cure that will be the arrival of Spring. I can guarantee you I am so ready for that. Our first meeting of the year will be on March 2nd, then 2 weeks later is The History Show preparations for that are well underway and we will be ready. Our schedule, event flyers and other info is all on our new look and updated website. Eric has done a fantastic job of making the site so much more attractive and accessible to navigate. You really do need to check that out and then be sure to thank him for his time and effort in doing such a great job. Let's go back to the upcoming History Show, FYI, we will be having our usual Trade Goods Tables, (donations appreciated) and our promotion table with our event flyers and Club info. etc. and again, this year we will have percussion caps available for purchase both #11's and #11 +. This would be a great time to stock- up just weeks before the shooting season starts. For us that will be the Zimmerman Memorial just 3 weeks later. As I have said in the past, at my age I hate to see time go by so fast, but I am also ready to get all of the above underway. Hopefully. With sunshine and at least 60 deg. Of course, we'll take whatever we get, but I can wish. Can't I? I hope to see you in a few more weeks.

Jeff

CAMPSITES AND CAMPSITE REGISTRATION

The $150.00 a year camping fee reserves the campsite and includes 20 days of electric hookup without additional charges.

Anyone camping at Shotgun will pay the event fee, plus the additional current up charge for A/C use.

At major events, i.e.; Zimmerman, Spring Shoot, Family Rendezvous, Frontier Shoot, Ladies Fun Tyme At The Range, and October Fest/Meat Shoot, members are REQUIRED to pay the electrical charge for that event.

All members paying the event electrical fee will not have those days deducted against their 20 day limit.

After a registered reserved campsite member has surpassed the 20 day electrical use limit, those members will be charged a $2.00 a day electrical fee if plugged in.
